DAVENPORT HOUSE
Hertford vicinity, Perquimans County, North Carolina

Date of erection: Mid-eighteenth century

Present condition: Fair

Description:

Story and a half; brick ends, Flemish bond. Projecting end chimneys with steep weatherings. Gambrel roof with four shed dormers. Four openings below do not center on dormers, door off center to right of front, with one window to right and two to left. Sash 9/9 lights.

Interior once contained two rooms with paneled ends and high paneled dados. These have now been removed to Littleton, North Carolina. The stair and hall trim is still in place. The stair is closed string with a paneled spandrel. The balusters are heavy and are turned simply.
